VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1868. NO. 21.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Washington Evening Express.

COERCIVE POLICY OF THE RADICALS.

The Radical papers in this city and elsewhere are very much disturbed by the announcement that the people of the South are not disposed any longer to leave the control of the negro vote in the hands of the Freedmen's Bureau and the carpet-baggers; that they propose to give the negro who evinces a friendly feeling for and acts with them the preference over those who combine with their enemies to degrade and oppress them, and they affect the most holy horror at such iniquitous means for controlling their sable dupes.

Are these gentlemen aware of the fact that the negro vote has been controlled—coerced into the support of the Radical party all over the South, ever since the right of suffrage was conferred upon them; that no sooner had the war closed than a large force of "slang-whangers," black and white, was sent among them for the very purpose of teaching them to distrust and to hate their former masters, and to array them as a class against them, and thus, beyond peradventure, secure their votes? Do they know that the special mission of the Freedmen's Bureau was to accomplish this very thing, and that to effect it they have coaxed and threatened them by turns? That, even now, the agents of the Bureau in North Carolina, and we suppose elsewhere, to stop the desertions going on at a rate that threatens the demolition of their party, are required to report (for punishment the negro is told) the names of all negroes who leave the leagues and join the Democratic party? Or do they believe that it is all right to make them support the Radical ticket, though all wrong to try to make them vote otherwise?

The papers here and elsewhere at the North affect not to understand the destructive character of the Radicalism that is forced upon the Southern negro. They pretend not to know that it means violence in all its forms—robbery, rapine, murder, individually and collectively, and that it is now organizing war upon a large scale in every Southern community. Do they not know that Radical carpet baggers and negroes are plundering in the most outrageous and wholesale manner the public and private purses at the South? All this they do know, and are doubtless willing to justify. But our bull begins to gore their ox, and they set up a terrible howl.

It does not seem to have struck these Radicals that the country knows as well as they do that this practice of coercion has been in operation in most of the large establishments at the North for several years past, and that it has been used in the interests of their party. We are credibly informed that A. T. Stewart, the narrow-minded dry-goods millionaire in New York, who so disinterestedly came out in favor of their candidate some months ago, and modestly issued his circulars to the business men of the United States, asking them to come up and help elect him; this man, who is respected by no one on the face of the earth who knows his disposition to control, not only those in his employ, but the trade in his line in New York; who uses his immense capital to crush out all opposition, and has already destroyed several who had the temerity to set up in the neighborhood of his up-town store; this model Radical, whose god is mammon, and who is reverenced only by those who worship at the same shrine, in 1860, called up his employees, some hundreds in number, and informed them that they had better vote the Republican ticket. Of course, the intimation was sufficient; and there is no doubt that he will do the same thing for Grant.

Another instance may be mentioned.—Mr. John W. Forney made a speech in Philadelphia just after the Chicago Convention, and while the impeachment business was impending, in which there was a paragraph that failed to call our the indignation of the Radical party, because, we suppose, it was only white men that he proposed to coerce. The paragraph is as follows: "If the recreants still continue in their crimes and refuse to turn out Andrew Johnson in response to your loud demand, then it is for us to appeal to Congress, and to ask that no more appropriations be made to the Navy Department to be used to override you in this and other districts."

This cannot be easily misunderstood; he wanted to scare the Democratic workingmen in the Philadelphia navy-yard into the support of the Radical programme, and punish them for a matter in which the United States Senate alone had jurisdiction.

By "the recreants" he meant Trumbull, Fessenden, and others of the seven who, though Radicals, were too respectable, notwithstanding their party affiliations, to perjure themselves for the benefit of Forney, Ben. Wade, and the party. We don't know whether the workmen in the navy-yard were frightened badly or not, but should think, from the way the workingmen of the country generally are supporting Seymour and Blair, that the threat was as little heeded by them as were those of the Radical press and party all over the country by the seven Senators referred to, and which presents another case of attempted coercion by the Radicals, with which the country is too familiar to be mentioned here.

But this device of the Radicals for carrying elections would not have been thought of by the Southern planter, had it not become necessary to counteract the efforts of those who have, in some cases, and would in all, drive the negroes to the polls and make them vote for those who are doing all in their power to degrade and rob them. Their object is not so much to control their votes as to get them from under the influence of the leagues, organized and managed by the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau and other bad men, which have demoralized them, made them worthless as laborers, and made them thieves and pests of the land.

Since the above was written our attention has been called to a bill before the mongrel Legislature of North Carolina, "to punish bribery and coercion in elections," the fourth section of which reads as follows:

"That it shall be unlawful for any person to discharge from employment, withdraw patronage from, or otherwise injure, threaten, oppress or attempt to intimidate, any of the qualified voters of this State, because of the vote such voter may cast at any election." Penalty, a fine not less than twenty dollars, or imprisonment not less than ten days.

Verily, "whom the gods would destroy they first make mad."

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S STORIES.

We have had serious doubts, whether the professed sale of the Standard office was a bona fide sale, or whether the original editors and proprietors retained some interest in it. The ear-marks of various editorials have indicated, very plainly, the hand of the Head Centre, and yesterday's Standard makes the supposition more glaring. One or two short articles in that number are based upon private letters received at the Executive office, and furnish matter for "Gov." Holden's characteristic pen. This is certain. We beg the attention of our Anson county friends to certain statements made in regard to assaults upon a colored man named Samuel Redfern, who attempted to address a Democratic meeting, and was beaten after he had been invited to address the meeting, and also in regard to the beating of Samuel Jackson, a "loyal man." The story carries a falsehood on its face, but it furnishes the occasion for a foolish outcry about "beating people for their political opinions," and an attempt to inflame the colored people against the whites. Of the same character, is the article about Hyde county. The Executive writer of the article says "If any rebel attempts to beat a colored man, because he is a Republican, let that colored man whip that Rebel." When and where did it ever occur that any white man attempted to beat a colored man, because he was a Republican? The fact indicated by the statement, we believe to be a falsehood, out and out. We demand the proof that such an instance ever occurred in North Carolina, or any where else. The statements in both articles we believe to be utterly without foundation, and we believe they are libels upon the white people of Anson and Hyde. If such a thing ever occurred, we want the evidence—the proof of it. We want to express our utter condemnation of such conduct, no matter who is guilty of it.

Under existing laws, (whether those laws are constitutional or not, is not a question to be mooted in this connection,) the colored people have the same civil rights that white people have. They are allowed the same political rights—the right to vote and to hold office; and, so long as those laws are in force, we shall insist upon it, that no Radical or Democrat has any right to interfere with or attempt to abridge those rights. So far as our knowledge of the feelings and conduct of Conservatives or Democrats extends, we do not know an instance in which any of them have done, or would do, any thing to interfere, unlawfully, with the colored man, in the exercise of the privileges conferred upon him. We certainly cannot justify such interference in any one.

But what are the facts? Many of the colored people, who have become great politicians, are very ignorant. They neither understand their rights nor the rights of others. Moreover, they are the dupes of bad instructors, whose object seems not to instruct, but to inflame, to aggravate and excite them. Many of them consider that liberty means licentiousness—that freedom means that they can do as they please. Many of them seem to forget that the whole structure of society has not yet been changed, how much soever they may desire it;—that white people have rights, as well as themselves, and that, in order to promote harmony and good feeling between the two races, which every good man desires shall continue to exist, there must be a constant observance, on the part of both races, of certain proprieties, which are due to all men, according to circumstances.

In the above named cases, the facts are distorted and misrepresented,—and if the colored men referred to were assailed at all, it was not because they were Republicans, but because of conduct which excited and forced it.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE that the Radicals of the Legislature, headed by the "Lieutenant Governor" of the State, and, also, the Yankee organ of the party in this City, recommend to their black partizans to steal the corn in the field, and to kill the cattle and hogs of their neighbors. And keep it before the people that the fruits of this advice are beginning to appear, all over the State, in outrages of the most atrocious character.

PARTIZAN BITTERNESS.

We have counselled moderation and prudence among the Democrats and Conservatives. Violent, harsh and bitter speeches, however popular they may be among the masses, do far more harm than good. The worst men in the land never fail to rally around them bad men, at least, when they are violently assailed. There is a feeling in human nature which pities, then supports, even the worst men, when they are regarded as being persecuted. Equally injurious are hasty, bitter, violent newspaper articles.

The issues now before the people are too grave, are fraught with too serious consequences, to be biased or affected by violent temper or vindictiveness. It is a time for every man to keep cool and to play the man and the patriot. All sinister, selfish or mere partizan feelings should be laid aside. Scramble for office should be tabooed and ignored by every Democrat and Conservative, and the unbiased voice of the people, and the real peace and prosperity of the country, should control all our movements.

Least of all, should we imitate the Radicals of the State in their bitterness, their violent and incendiary speeches, their newspaper tirades and abuse of those opposed to them. In this regard, no party has ever before, in this State, shown such a spirit.

In a professed address of the Legislature to their constituents, by the Radical members, the occasion was perverted to the most libellous and unfounded charges against the Democrats and Conservatives, to the most bitter and incendiary incitements to the colored race to commit every species of crime, and the most unworthy suggestions to that race to induce them to sustain the Radical cause. The Yankee organ of the rebel-Radical party in this city abounds with the same bitter and incendiary spirit, exceeding any thing ever before known in North Carolina. Its editorials and communications, though devoid of ability, reason and patriotic fervor, boil over with invective and slang.

Let us, as Conservatives and Democrats, avoid these excesses.

THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE—UNSEATING OF BLACKS.

The telegraph, on yesterday, announced that negroes had been declared, by the lower House of the Legislature of Georgia, ineligible to office in that State, and that all of the colored members of that body had been, consequently, unseated. We have no means, as yet, of analyzing the large majority,—some sixty,—by which this action was accomplished, but we infer, from the character of the speech of Turner, a leading colored member, that the minority was composed almost exclusively of the Northern element, while almost the entire native vote constituted the majority,—the blacks, themselves, not voting, or not being permitted to vote, on the question of their own eligibility. The entire action seems to have been predicated upon an opinion, by ex Gov. Brown, who is now the Radical Chief Justice of the State of Georgia, and who was the caucus nominee of the party for United States Senator, to the effect that the new Radical Constitution of Georgia disqualified negroes from holding office in that State.

We regard this action of the Georgia House of Representatives, with the lights at present before us, as unwise in the extreme. We do not know what are the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Georgia, but if they at all resemble those of the new Constitution of North Carolina, the negro members, so long as that Constitution is in existence, are certainly entitled to the seats of which they have been deprived by the opinion of this Radical Judge, Jo. Brown, and the House of Representatives. The colored race may see, in this conduct of one of the prominent leaders of the Radical party,—one who figured in the Chicago Convention and who has been lauded, time and again by the press and party in North Carolina,—the degree of real friendship which Radicalism so blatantly professes for them.

SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Democratic and Conservative Convention for this District assembled at Statesville, on Wednesday, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and for Presidential Elector. Ten of the twelve counties composing the District were represented, and harmony and enthusiasm characterized the occasion.

Col. Jno. M. Long, of Cabarrus, was made President of the Convention, and Col. E. A. Osborne, of Mecklenburg, Secretary. On the third ballot, FRANCIS E. SHOBER, Esq., of Rowan, was unanimously nominated as the Democratic and Conservative candidate for Congress; and, subsequently, W. M. ROBBINS, Esq., was nominated, by acclamation, for Elector. Both gentlemen, being present, promptly accepted the nominations in brief and eloquent speeches.

The Convention was most fortunate in the selection of Mr. Shober. Of fine address and attainments, a popular and forcible debater, a genial gentleman, he will make a most efficient canvass. In political antecedents, Mr. S. was a Whig and a devoted friend of the Constitution and Union. Since the war, he has been equally as true to both. He is, essentially, a North Carolinian. We predict his triumphant election. He will enter at once upon his campaign,—addressing the people of Catawba, at Newton, on Monday next, and the people of Davie, at Mocksville, on Tuesday.

The choice of Mr. Robbins, as Elector, is equally happy. He has few superiors anywhere, as a vigorous and effective speaker, and he will do splendid service in the cause. Mr. R. has always been a Democrat, and a true man, in every sense of the term.

It is understood that Mr. Boyden will announce himself as an independent candidate for Congress, and that the Radicals will not bring out opposition to him.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE that the Radical organ in this City recommends the County Commissioners to build negro villages and to TAX THE LANDS of the people for the support of a lazy and thriftless population!

For the Sentinel.

"The Raleigh Register was founded by Joseph Gales, Sr., soon after he had reached this country from Sheffield, England, whence he escaped from the English government on account of his devotion to the rights of man. On his way to America his youngest son was born. He was named, in accordance with the circumstances of his birth, West on, Weston Raleigh Gales. Mr. Gales founded the Raleigh Register. After a time he also established the National Intelligencer at Washington, D. C. He obtained some knowledge, in Europe, of the use of Stenography, and he was alternately in Washington City and in Raleigh; and it was to Mr. Gales that we are indebted for the report of those great speeches of Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Lowndes, Randolph and others. It was said that he was the only person who could report John Randolph, of Roanoke. Mr. Randolph did not have the patience to write much. So far as his beauty of thought and expression is concerned, the reports are entirely due to Joseph Gales, Sr. He reported, also, Mr. Webster's speech in reply to Mr. Hayne.—It is said that so far as the written portion was concerned, that magnificent peroration was the only part written by Mr. Webster, and that was furnished as an entirety. He had an apprentice, Wm. W. Seaton, who married a daughter of his. He afterwards confided the Intelligencer to his son-in-law, Mr. Seaton, and his son Joseph Gales, Jr." —W. W. Holden's speech at the Standard office dinner, as reported in the Standard of August 25th, 1868.

It would be difficult to crowd a greater number of mis statements of facts, purporting to be truths of history, into the same space occupied by this extract. The style is concise, and is what is termed condensed narrative. But what astonishes us most of all is, that these mis statements should have been deliberately uttered by a man who tells us, in the same speech, "I accomplished this:" that is, the writing of "the English language with some degree of correctness," "as the result of my experience in the printing office, and my study for twenty years of standard English authors, and my attention from boyhood to everything I have read, seen and heard. I have let nothing escape me." How well he was prepared, himself being judge, to give us the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, but how signally he failed, so far as facts are concerned, the above extract will show. And if we apply the rule, ex uno disce omnes,—from this specimen learn the character of all—this whole dinner speech is simply a tissue of what are called false facts; that is, of things spoken and done that were not truths, though asserted to be such.

When a man sets himself up for a teacher in Israel, who, by the grace of God and his own gloriously well devoted but unaided efforts, has "lived to learn and learned to live," and yet makes such mis-statements of facts as are to be found in this extract, a vindication of the truth of history makes it necessary to expose the author of them, in order that all other statements from him, whenever and wherever made, may be received with proper caution. For how can we know, after reading these mis statements, how many of his other statements are true. Many of the persons who could attest their truth or falsity are dead. But one thing is certain; if we admit his statements about Judge Cameron to be true, then he is the merest ingrate living. He intimates that Judge Cameron was a wise and far seeing man who voluntarily counselled him for his good and not to his undoing, and that he happily followed his advice. And he says, that Judge Cameron, as the President of the old State Bank, from time to time kindly indulged him in money matters, and that this kindness and indulgence insured him success, and that Judge Cameron did all this, knowing that the Standard paper would be turned against the Bank. Credat Judaeus Apella, non ego.

Well, Judge Cameron is long since dead; but he left honored and respected representatives. Now we would like for this man, who confessedly owes his success in life to Judge Cameron, to state what are his feelings towards his representatives. Has he not heaped abuse and vituperation upon them, and thrown around them whatever of political embarrassment and civil entanglement that he could? But we forget, that our Cæsar is not influenced by the impulses that govern and direct other and common men, and that he must be allowed also to indulge in some colloquial laxity of morality, since his virtues have swollen beyond their just and natural proportions.

But to the facts of the case: Weston Raleigh Gales was not born on the "way to America," and named, in accordance with the circumstances of his birth, West-on, as set forth in the pleadings. That is simply an invention—harmless, it is true, but certainly a fanciful one, and not at all creditable to a man who had spent twenty of the best years of his life in studying the best English authors, and who remembered everything that he had "read, seen and heard." And here, by the way, we would ask how did it happen that one, so conversant with the British classics, should make the horrid and barbarous mistake of quoting that celebrated line from Pope, viz:

"Honor and shame from no condition rise"—
Honor and fame from no condition rise.

The whole poetic conception and antithetical beauty of the line is ruined by it. And yet he has been a close student of the best English authors for twenty years, and is himself a poet who has immortalized the Southern cross. But let that pass. It was one of his youthful indiscretions, if he ever had any youth or was ever guilty of indiscretion.

Weston Raleigh Gales was born four or five years after his father reached this country, in the very house which was his residence at the time of his death, and in which his father had lived before him, and in which Seaton Gales, Esq., Weston R. Gales' son, now resides. The name of Weston was given him in compliment to his mother, it being a family name on her side of the house; and the name of Raleigh was given him from the name of the place of his birth. Mr. Joseph Gales, Sr., did not found the National Intelligencer, nor did he edit it. It was purchased by Messrs. Jo. Gales, Jr., and Wm. W. Seaton, from a man by the name of Smith, who had published it as the organ of Mr. Madison's administration.

It was not to Joseph Gales, Sr., "that we are indebted for the report of those great speeches of Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Lowndes Randolph and others." The only great speech that we have, which was delivered in Congress and reported by Joseph Gales, Sr., is Fisher Ames' speech on Jay's Treaty. The other speeches here spoken of were reported by Jo. Gales, Jr. Of course all the other statements that are dependent on the above mentioned facts are unfounded.

There was one person at this celebrated feast, who, we think, ought not to have been there; nor do we exactly know why he was there. Was he nursing somebody, or was somebody nursing him? There were so many there to represent the State's money and the State's credit, that it is hard to say who had the inside track. Although the members of this Ring are pretty well known about here, the special parts allotted to each are not so well ascertained.

VERITAS.

[The facts are correctly stated, in the foregoing communication, by a friend and almost life-long acquaintance of the Gales family, who has had opportunities of knowing whereof he writes.

There were other mistakes made on the occasion to which the writer refers. We observed, for instance, when we read the various speeches made at Mr. Joseph's Restaurant, that our townsman, Colonel R. W. Pulliam, also made a speech. In alluding to a conversation which he had with certain Bankers in New York, (at least thirty years ago, we judge,) he mentioned the spirited manner in which he vindicated the good name of North Carolina, and how he mentioned, in the catalogue of her great men, the Badgers, Gastons, Macons and Holdens! The present Governor, at that time, we think, must have been a journeyman or apprentice in the Star printing office. The anachronism is, therefore, quite evident.—Sentinel.]

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN PITT.

Pursuant to a previous notice, a large number of the young men of Greenville and vicinity assembled at the Court House, on Tuesday night, the 25th., for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Seymour and Blair Club.

The meeting being called to order, on motion of J. B. Yellowley, H. E. Nelson was elected temporary Chairman and Alex. Blow, temporary Secretary.

On motion a Committee of five was appointed by the Chairman to draft a Constitution, viz: J. B. Yellowley, W. H. Hunter, S. L. Nelson, Jas. E. Clark and Robt. Green.

On the return of the Committee, the Constitution was submitted and unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were nominated and elected permanent officers: Jas. B. Yellowley, President; Jas. E. Clark, H. E. Nelson and B. F. Patrick, Vice Presidents; Louis W. Lawrence, Treasurer; Alex. Blow, Recording Secretary; McG. Ernal, Corresponding Secretary.

On motion of Alex. Blow, a Committee of two was appointed to conduct the President to the chair.

Mr Yellowley, on taking his seat, made a very forcible and appropriate speech, during which he was frequently cheered.

On motion, a Committee of three were appointed to draft resolutions, consisting of the following gentlemen: Jas. E. Clarke, John Flemming and Louis W. Lawrence.—The Committee returned with the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:

WHEREAS, The time has arrived when it has become proper for all men to express their sentiments relative to the political issues of the day, and to assume that position which it is necessary for them to occupy in the Presidential contest; and whereas it is impossible for us as true Union men and Southerners to support the candidate of the revolutionists in Congress, and the nominee of that party, which has encroached upon the rights, and curtailed the privileges of the Executive; which has robbed the Judiciary of its prerogatives; which has consumed millions of the public Treasury, in devising and adopting measures evidently for the purpose of perpetuating its power, and has destroyed the Constitutional government of the States of the Union, and placed the control of these States in the hands of Northern "carpet baggers," Southern "scallawags" and negroes; therefore,

Be it resolved, 1st. That fearing the destruction of our government, and the subversion of our Republican Institutions, we call upon all good and true men of Pitt County to struggle manfully for the success and election, in November next, of the nominees of the Democratic Convention, which assembled in New York, on the 4th. of July last.

2nd. That we heartily endorse the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention on the 4th of July and consider it the exponent of justice and right.

3rd. That in the patriotic statesman, Horatio Seymour, of New York, and the chivalrous soldier, Frank P. Blair, Jr., of Missouri, we recognize the standard bearers of all true lovers of this Republic.

4th. That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Tarboro' Southerner and Raleigh Sentinel, for publication.

It was moved and carried that two gentlemen be appointed by the President to address the Club at the next meeting. The gentleman appointed were Jas. E. Clarke and H. E. Nelson.

On motion, a Committee of arrangements was appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen: J. E. Clarke, S. S. Nelson and H. F. Harris.

The meeting was addressed by Dr. C. J. O'Hagan, Messrs. Germain Bernard and O. P. Humber, in very able and entertaining speeches.

On motion, the meeting adjourned until Tuesday night next.

ALEX. BLOW, Sec'y.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN BURKE.

TABLE ROCK ACADEMY,
Burke County, Aug. 25, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—We beg leave to note the proceedings of a Democratic Club meeting, commenced at the above named Institute, on the 15th inst. The crowd assembled, and, after having been called to order, J. F. Murrill, Esq., was called to the Chair, W. B. Avery acting as Secretary.

After a brief and pointed explanation of the object of the meeting by the Chairman, Messrs. G. Phifer Erwin, Charles F. McKesson and Col. T. G. Walton, of Morganton, addressed the crowd in a brief and pointed manner, setting forth the atrocities of Radicalism, the inconsistencies of their mode of reconstruction, and finally exhorted the people to strike for freedom, by the election of Seymour and Blair in the coming election.

After the speaking was over, the election of the permanent officers took place as follows: President, Rev. R. L. Abernathy, (Professor of the Institute); Vice Presidents, Portland Warlick, Thomas Parks, H. C. Tate, Robert Patton, J. F. Murrill, Alfred Perry, Osborn Perkins, James R. Kincaid, Jas. C. Estes, Benj Galloway, Oliver Branch and Michael Spainhower; Recording Secretary, P. A. Hoyle; Corresponding Secretary, R. V. Kerley; Treasurer, Wm. Cooper; Directors, W. B. Avery, N. P. Beck, B. H. Sisk, J. M. Kincaid, S. C. Kerley and Rufus Spainhower.

The Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs, were read and adopted.

We hope our Democratic friends will assist us in driving back the threatening waves of anarchy and revolution, so that the 3rd of November will bring tidings of joy to the once saddened hearts of our dear sunny South. "Old Rip" is waking up, and her people seem to realize the fact, once more, that "there's life in the old land yet."

R. V. KERLEY,
Corresponding Secretary.

BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Dunn, Todd & Co., General Commission Merchants, 44 South St., near Exchange Place, Baltimore, Md. We have heretofore announced the formation of this new Firm. P. A. Irish Potatoes, Onions, Nails, Snuff, Parlor Matches, Molasses: Upchurch & Dodd, Market Square.

Davis, Drake & Co., corner of Bank and Sycamore Sts., Petersburg, Va., make an attractive announcement to the Wholesale Trade of North Carolina. This is one of the strongest and most enterprising Firms in the South, and they present inducements to the North Carolina Trade, which cannot be surpassed. Let our Merchants read their advertisement, and they will find that they can profitably supply themselves in the various lines of Merchandize, without going farther North.

Gen. W. G. Lewis, Chief Engineer of the Williamston & Tarboro Railroad, advertises for proposals for work on that Road.

Dupont's F. F. F. Powder, Fine Salt, Coffees of various grades: T. A. Williams & Co., No. 6, Roanoke Square, Norfolk.

Curled Hair Mattress and Handsome Sofa for sale; W. H. Jones & Co.

"GREY JACKETS."—Thos. Bailey, Esq., of Wake, is Agent for this County, for the sale of this valuable publication. It is a large volume, very handsomely printed, contains handsome steel engravings of Lee, Johnston, Beauregard, and other Confederate Generals, and a splendid variety of narrative, anecdote and reminiscences of the great civil war. The price of this attractive volume is only $3, and it can only be obtained from Agents. Mr. Bailey, whom we have known for many years as a perfectly reliable gentleman, will wait upon our citizens, and the people of the County, generally, with a view to obtaining subscriptions.

EDWIN DELEON, ESQ.—We had the gratification of a call, on yesterday, from this distinguished ex-citizen of South Carolina, (now of New York,) who visits North Carolina on an important mission. Mr. DeLeon has figured largely as a brilliant member of the Press, in by gone days, and was Consul General to Egypt under the administration of President Pierce. He is now engaged in literary pursuits.

DR. EDWARD WARREN, a native of this State, but now Professor of Surgery in Washington University, Baltimore, in connection with Dr. C. W. Chancellor, of the same institution, is to publish a monthly medical journal in Baltimore, to be called the "Baltimore Journal of Medicine and Surgery."

THANKS to our worthy friend, Neill S. Stewart, Esq., of Harnett, for a club of eighteen subscribers to the Sentinel.

UBIQUITOUS MER.—The Yankee organ announces that jno. pool will be present at the Radical Mass-Meeting, in this City, on the 16th. inst., and, at the same time, on a canvass in the mountains!

The same veracious sheet announces that Senator Nye may be expected here on the same occasion. We see, by the Northern papers, that Senator Nye sailed, a few days since, for Europe. Try again, Tar-hammer.

EDENTON TRANSCRIPT.—This sprited Weekly Journal, after a short suspension, has resumed publication, and will do good service in the cause. It is efficiently and trenchantly conducted by Wm. Brenan, Esq. Success to it and its able Editor. Price $3 per annum.

THE SUB-ELECTORS of Chowan are canvassing that county efficiently, and with the best results.

FORSYTH.—A large meeting of the friends of Seymour and Blair, in this county, was held at Winston, on the 29th. ult. Dr. T. F. Keehln presided and Prof. A. B. Gorrell and Geo. M. Mathis, were Secretaries.—About 400 citizens of the county were present, and they were addressed, with power and eloquence, by Col. Jos. Masten and Thos. J. Wilson, Esq. A Club was formed, when 168 names were at once enrolled.—The following are the officers: President, T. F. Keehln; Vice Presidents, Joshua Boner, H. A. Holder and Jos. A. Gray; Recording Secretary, G. M. Mathis; Corresponding Secretary, Jos. Masten; Treasurer Robt. D. Gorrell.

CURRAN, in one of his speeches, alluded to a time in England, "when the deserted beaches of public justice were filled by some of those wretched foundlings of fortune, who, overwhelmed in the torrent of corruption, at an early period, lay at the bottom like drowned bodies, while sanity remained in them; but, at length, becoming buoyant by putrefaction, they rose as they rotted, and floated to the surface of the polluted stream, where they were drifted along, the objects of terror, contagion and abomination."

GOV. VANCE.

The Radical papers and speakers, taking their cue from the New York Citizen and Herald, have give currency to the infamous lie that Gov. Vance stated, in a speech in Richmond, just after the close of the National Democratic Convention, that "what the Confederacy fought for would be won by the election of Seymour and Blair." This was promptly denied by Gov. Vance, as soon as the mendacious charge was made by the Citizen, and his denial was generally published in the papers of the State, more than a month ago. Dr. Barrow, Senator in the Legislature from Northampton, must have seen that denial, and yet we find him, in a card to his constituents, just issued, repeating the foul libel. This card, by the way, in spirit and temper, is the most revengeful and bitter, and, in shameless perversion and misstatement, the most contemptible, document we have yet seen from any Radical source, always excepting the Legislature address, written by whom? We ask again, that we may hold him or them up to the scorn and execration of every true North Carolinian. Dr. Barrow has been thought, heretofore, to be a fair and moderate man. He may have been once, but when a man turns Radical, he seems, at once and by necessary consequence, to lose all sense of propriety.

The following is Gov. Vance's refutation of the falsehood referred to:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July, 30, 1868.

To the Editor of the Citizen:

SIR—In your issue of the 18th instant, appears the following paragraph:

"Ex-Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, said in his speech—or is reported to have said, and has not contradicted the report—that, 'what the Confederacy fought for would be won by the election of Seymour and Blair; adding, that secession is not dead. It is more alive than ever.' If there be any truth in this story, we may set down Vance as working for the Radical ticket even harder than Mark M. Pomeroy in his La Crosse Democrat, a paper the immense energy and rough talent of which we have no disposition to deny."

I desire to say that there is not one word of truth in this statement. I made use of no expression in the remotest degree like it. The reports of the speeches delivered on the occasion referred to were all very meagre, but none of them I believe attributed such a remark to me. Not only did I not utter such sentiments in my New York speech, I suppose to be the one alluded to, but I have never on any occasion done so. I never was a secessionist, and only fought during the war at the command of my native State, and to resist a policy of coercion and consolidation worse and more ruinous by far than secession.

My denial of the truth of the statement is made just so soon as your paper containing it meets my eye.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,

Z. B. VANCE.

A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE.—The Secretary of Wake County Grant and Colfax Club has published a long list of appointments for the county, and announces that some of the following person will address the people at each of the places: W. W. Holden, "Gov." of N. C.; W. M. Coleman, Attorney General of N. C.; D. A. Jenkins, Public Treasurer; H. J. Menninger, Secretary of State; R. M. Douglas, Aid to Holden; W. R. Richardson, Clerk to Holden; Rev. S. S. Ashley, Superintendent of Public Instruction; C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works; T. F. Lee, Sheriff of Wake County; J. N. Bunting, Clerk of Superior Court; H. Adams, Auditor of N. C.; Dr. E. Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum; Dr. R. B. Ellis, Steward of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum; J. W. Holden, Speaker of the House of Representatives; W. D. Jones, "Major General" of Melish; J. Font. Taylor, member of Literary Board; C. J. Rogers, Agent at N. C. Depot; J. P. Andrews, County Commissioner; H. T. Hughes, negro Barber; Stewart Ellison, negro Blacksmith; and Rev. S. N. Whitson, (nothing.)

Every one of the above named, except the last three, are office-holders. Why were the names of Friday Jones, C. M. Farris, and others, omitted? Are they not competent?

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE—THE PUBLIC DEBT INCREASED OVER ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MILLIONS DOLLARS SINCE THE CLOSE OF THE WAR.

The following is the official statement of the public debt, made by Secretary McCulloch, on the 31st. ultimo, as compared with his official statement, on the 31st. of March, 1865, at the close of the war:

July 31, 1868,	$2,523,534,440 67
March 31, 1865,	2 366,965,077 34
Increase	$156,579,469 33

Such is the effect of three years of Radical rule in time of peace!

VERMONT.—The Radical majority in this State is four thousand less than it was in 1864. It is some five or six thousand more than it was last year, and this, although the Democratic vote has been increased several thousand. In view of all the circumstances, the Democrats have done well, and the New York World is encouraged by the result. The Herald says that no significance, whatever, is to be attached to the vote.

NASH.—A Seymour and Blair Club was organized in District No. 1, in Nash county, on Tuesday, the 1st inst. Col. William H. Rowland was elected President. A number of colored voters gave in their names. So the good work goes bravely on in Nash.

THINGS DOWN SOUTH.—A private letter received from Brevet Lieut. Col. Welsh, Fortieth U. S. Infantry, commanding post of Waterboro, S. C., states that while engaged in rescuing a colored man from an armed band of negroes, on the 24th of August ult., the Colonel's force of twenty men was attacked by the mob, and a skirmish of several hours' duration ensued. The troops were first fired on, and the Colonel thinks would have been defeated, so great was the disparity of numbers, but for the superiority of their arms (breech-loaders.) The post of Waterboro is some fifty miles from the railroad, which accounts for the delay in the announcement by telegraph. The Col. gave no particulars, being engaged in making his official report, but states that the fight was a hot one.—Washington Rep. (rad.)

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A communication appeared in a recent issue of the Sentinel, signed "Many Citizens of Orange," recommending Thomas M. Argo, Esq., as a suitable person to be nominated for Congress.—It is, no doubt, right and proper that the claims of all gentlemen, whose friends may put them forward, should be well canvassed at the Convention. I think, however, that I express the sentiments of an overwhelming majority of the Conservatives and Democrats of the 4th District, when I give it as my opinion that the nomination is eminently due to Samuel T. Williams, Esq., of Granville, our gallant standard bearer in the last Congressional campaign, to whom the delegates from this District at the State Convention tendered a unanimous vote of thanks for his "able and indefatigable efforts in the late canvass."

Mr. Williams is a gentleman of the highest moral character, an eloquent and able speaker, possesses great popularity, and bore our banner at a time when there was no hope of his success, at considerable pecuniary sacrifice. As soon as he was nominated, he entered vigorously on the campaign and met Dewease at the latter's own appointments, when possible, and exposed him to the disgust of his own friends.

Mr. Williams spoke in every county in the District except Orange,—the heavy rains in Chatham preventing him from filling his appointment in Hillsboro',—but his efforts were chiefly confined to those parts of the District where he was advised his speeches would effect more for the cause.

Mr. Argo is, no doubt, a young man of promise and deserves great credit, as do all the Democrats in the Legislature, for opposing the Radical schemes. But Mr. Williams fought the Radicals in the last campaign with signal ability and eloquence, "displaying," as the Sentinel said at the close of the canvass, "untiring energy and fine ability and made a record for himself of which he and his friends may well feel proud." If Mr. Williams will consent to be our standard bearer again, he is certainly entitled to the nomination.

JUSTICE.

For the Sentinel.

NASHVILLE, N. C., Sept. 2, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me, through your columns, to nominate B. F. Moore, Esq., as a candidate for the next Congress, from this District, believing it will receive the approbation of the people generally. Experience has, in general, demonstrated that the care of government demands the utmost vigor of mental faculties in its rulers, and all those advantages which maturity of age and judgment can bestow.

Respectfully Yours,

NASH.

HARNETT.

AVERASBORO', Sept. 1st., 1868.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—We had, on last Saturday, one of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings that we have had for years. Interesting speeches were made by J. A. Spears, Esq., Dr. D. R. Parker and Rev. C. Roby. The crowd appeared to be without a dissenting voice for Seymour and Blair. Harnett is awake. You may expect a good account from us in November.

The meeting adopted resolutions suitable for the occasion, appointed delegates to the District Convention, to be held in Fayetteville, on the 9th, and adopted a Constitution for a Seymour and Blair Club.

After the speaking, between 50 and 60 enrolled their names as members. Among them were some who have been leading Radicals, and looked upon, heretofore, as uncompromising men.

S.

Hon. Sanford E. Church delivered a stirring but argumentative speech in Watkins, N. Y., last Thursday. His audience was immense. After paying his respects to the bondholders, he took up a few other items of Radical finance:

"The Southern States are so impoverished that they are unable to contribute in any great degree towards paying the taxes of the Government. The State of New York for the last year has paid double the amount of internal revenue that the whole ten Southern States have paid, and yet they contain a population three times greater than New York. But for this infernal system of military despotism and Freedmen's Bureau, which prevents that country from developing itself and becoming prosperous, it would contribute to the support of the Government three times as much as the State of New York. Instead of the whole ten States paying $30,000,000 they should pay $150,000,000, according to the amount of taxation, as they would if they were as flourishing and prosperous as they would be but for the benighted influence of this Radical rule which is upon them. (Applause.) So you are not only obliged to contribute by direct taxation this $11,000,000 a year for the Freedmen's Bureau, and $10,000,000 or $20,000,000 for the army to back them up, but you are deprived of $150,000,000 a year which ought to go into the Treasury of the General Government, in consequence of keeping that country as it now is."

A LETTER FROM F. P. BLAIR.—Colonel R. A. Alston recently wrote to Gen. Blair, enclosing a copy of the Atlanta (Ga.) New Era, and referred the General to the lines at the head of that paper, in which it quotes Gen. Grant as saying "Let us have peace," and Gen. Blair as saying "Let us have war". He received the following letter in reply:

FORT SAUNDERS, WYOMING TERRITORY, Tuesday, August 18, 1868.—Colonel R. A. Alston, Atlanta, Ga.: Dear Sir: Your note in regard to the misrepresentations of the carpet-bag editor at Atlanta is received.—This is the business for which he is paid and by which he gets his living. I would not advise you or any other gentleman to notice him in any manner, except to correct, through the press, any falsehood which you may consider injurious to our cause. I have never made use of any such expression as he attributes to me. On the contrary, I am for that policy which alone can give peace to the country, and although General Grant says "let us have peace," he seeks to achieve it only through the military power and actual war on the principles of the government. Yours, truly, FRANK P. BLAIR.

STRAWS.—Sheriff Masten, and some four or five other office holders, made an appointment to speak at Carter's School House one night last week, and form a Grant and Colfax Club. They were on hand agreeably to appointment, and so were some thirty other persons, but, as bad luck would have it, they were all Seymour and Blair men—the enthusiasm of the faithful had suddenly grown cool and the crack of the Sheriff's whip had failed to bring them up.

The office holders seemed to think it was a bad night for Grant clubs and departed wiser and sadder men, with a good sized flea in their ears. When it is considered that this locality was one of the strong holds of radicalism, it is significant of the great change that is taking place in our county. —Winston Sentinel.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4, M.

The storm last night delayed the dispatches from Albany.

The Resolutions of the State Democratic Convention eulogize President Johnson, for his unswerving defense of the Constitution, and Judge Chase for impartiality in the impeachment trial.

FROM CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Sept. 4, M.

George Hall, formerly of Savannah, Georgia, but a native here, died, aged eighty, leaving thirty thousand dollars, each, to Hartford and Savannah, for charitable purposes.

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 4, P. M.

A Mexican train was attacked at Pawnee Fork, on the old Platte Road, seventy-three miles north west of Fort Dodge. Sixteen Mexicans were scalped, and their bodies were burned with the wagons.

Another train, with 75,000 pounds of wool, was attacked within 28 miles of Fort Dodge. The escort fought until the ammunition was exhausted, when they abandoned the train.

SEPTEMBER SESSION IMPROBABLE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4, P. M,

Gen. Schenck and Morgan will not meet to determine the September session until the seventeenth or eighteenth. Representative Kelley, of Alabama, opposes the session because, even if the bill arming the Militia could pass over the Veto, the arms could not be distributed before the election. He apprehends that a session would do more harm than good. The general impression is, that there will be no session.

GEN. ROSECRANZ'S LETTER TO GEN. LEE AND THE REPLY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4, P. M.

Gen. Rosecranz's letter to Gen. Lee commences full of solicitude for the future of our country:

"I come with my heart in my hand, to learn the condition, wishes and intentions of the people of the Southern States—especially to ascertain the sentiments of the brave, energetic and self-sacrificing men, who, after sustaining the Confederacy for four years, laid down their arms and swore allegiance to the United States—whose trusted and beloved leaders you have been."

The letter is quite long. Gen. Lee's answer is also long. The hour, at which it is received here, forbids the telegraphing of it in full, and it would be profanation to attempt a condensation of Gen. Lee's noble letter.

After Gen. Lee's signature, follow thirty leading Southern names.

FROM GEORGIA—THE LEGISLATURE.

ATLANTA, Sept. 4, P. M.

The bill as passed by the Senate and House, a week since, to hold the Savannah election on the first Tuesday in November, limiting the time to one day, and giving three ballot boxes, and vetoed by the Governor, on the ground that the time was not sufficient, was passed by the House, to-day, over the veto, by a vote of 84 to 27. The House adopted a resolution to pay the expelled members nine dollars per day to the time of their expulsion, and mileage one way; also a resolution declaring persons, having the next highest number of votes to negro members expelled on yesterday, members of the House, if they have no constitutional ineligibility. A committee of three was appointed to examine the election returns and report to the House.

FROM AUGUSTA, &c.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 4, P. M.

A large Democratic Mass Meeting at Waynesboro, on yesterday, was addressed by General Toombs, Wright and others.

It is believed here that the programme is to get all objectionable persons from the Legislature, and that expulsion will not be confined to negro members, but will be extended to many whites who, it is charged, are ineligible. The feeling is very bitter against that class whom they term scallawags and carpet baggers, and they are determined to unseat all against whom charges are proven. It is evident (?) that the Democrats can do what they please in the Legislature.

The negro Bradley is out as an independent candidate for Congress in the first District against Clift, the regular nominee and present representative in Congress. It is believed that Bradley will be elected, if he runs.

Turner (a negro) is spoken of for Congress in the fourth District.

The Republicans are working hard for Grant and Colfax. The negroes are being organized into Democratic Clubs in various parts of the State. In the cities and towns the negroes are strong Radicals but in the interior will be controlled by the Democrats.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4, P. M.

The Democratic State Central Committee calls for a State Convention here on the thirteenth instant, for nomination of candidates for Congress, and Electors, and Alternates, in the place of those, who may be found ineligible under the fourteenth amendment.

FOREIGN—FROM LONDON—HON. REVERDY JOHNSON.

LONDON, Sept. 4, P. M.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson made his first speech at the Sheffield Cutler's Annual feast, saying that he came to this country as a "messenger of peace."

MARKETS.

Those who talk about repudiation should remember that if the Radicals get another four years' lease of power, the people will be so beggared by taxation that they will be unable to pay their debts, even in greenbacks.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premiums charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate
25	$21.49	$37.48	45	$63.48	$79.18
30	25.50	43 10	50	74.57	104 27
35	31.34	51.04	55	108.27	142 96
40	40.07	62.41	60	163 95	201 07

Example. A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 43.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215,50, his policy will be good for $1,215 50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent. $7,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the amount additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the insured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur ensue on its consequence of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance; and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL October 19th

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, as the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the "assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in Science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological school has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges—Number of students the past year, 454. For Catalogues or further information, address,

VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FOR 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage. (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable, all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. His corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the pensions given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the —— Club of —— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANK P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board,) when the names of members shall be presented for registration, dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!
